Event Overview:

Thailand's Private Sector Collective Action against Corruption (CAC) is an initiative by the Thai private sector to take part in tackling corruption via collective action. The CAC aims to bring effective anti-corruption policy and mechanisms into implementation by companies in order to create an environment of clean business practices.

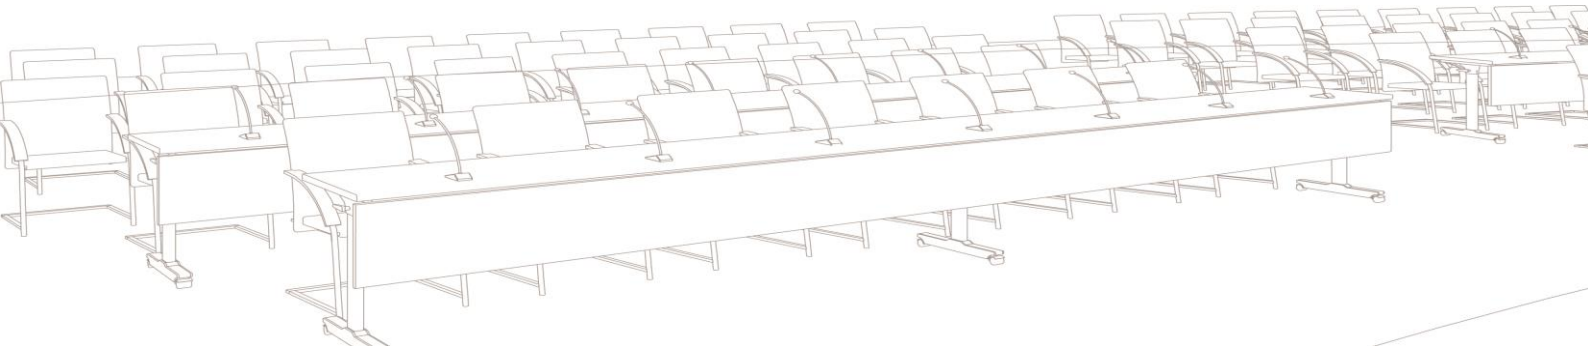

The CAC was co-founded by the country's eight leading organizations in the private sector including the Thai Chamber of Commerce, the Joint Foreign Chambers of Commerce in Thailand, the Thai Listed Companies Association, the Federation of Thai Industries, the Federation of Thai Capital Market Organizations, the Thai Bankers' Association, the Tourism Council of Thailand, and the Thai Institute of Directors Association (IOD), which also serves as its secretariat and takes a leading role in driving the program. The CAC's operations are sponsored by U.S.-based Center for Private Enterprise (CIPE) and the U.K. Prosperity Fund

Speaker:

Mr. Kulvech Janvatanavi holds Master degree in Real Estate Dev. from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, USA.

He is a Principal Project Advisor of CAC.

If you are interested to attend the seminar, please RSVP to Ms Orawee Musikul at email: OMusikul@rics.org or on phone: 02 684 1500.
